Ethical Issues for WTO Litigants

ORDRE DES AVOCATS DE GENÈVE

11 March 2019

17:30-19:00
followed by cocktail reception

World Trade Organization
Rue de Lausanne 154, Geneva,
Conference Room E

About the Conference

The topic of the conference is ethics for counsel in WTO litigation. The speakers will look at the current lack of regulation of ethical conduct for WTO litigants and the issues this gives rise to. Possible solutions will be discussed on the basis of a comparative perspective by reviewing the practice of international courts and tribunals, including in international commercial and investment arbitration

Organiser

SABE (Section of Lawyers from Foreign Bars of the Geneva Bar Association)
Jaime Gallego (Counsel, LALIVE)

Speakers & Moderators

Professor Laurence Boisson de Chazournes (Moderator – University of Geneva)

Rambod Behboodi (Partner, King & Spalding LLP)

Tanya Landon (Partner, Sidley Austin LLP)

Dr Arman Sarvarian (Senior Lecturer in Public International Law, University of Surrey)

Venue

World Trade Organisation
Please carry identification for admission into WTO premises

Who should attend?

Legal practitioners in private practice or in international organisations, state representatives and diplomats, academics, students, and individuals with an interest in international trade or arbitration law

Registration

Attendance is free, but registration is mandatory.
PLEASE REGISTER BY 7 MARCH 2019 HERE:
http://attending.io/events/ethical-issues-for-wto-litigants

scan to register